

SCHOLAR IN RESIDENCE

JACKIE GOLDMAN

Coping Mechanisms in the Face of Community Trauma: An Israeli Perspective

Jackie Goldman received her Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Yeshiva University - Stern College for Women, and her Master's in Counseling and Human Relations from Villanova University. A former Director of Counseling Services for the Ramah Programs in Israel, Ms. Goldman is Director of Counseling and Support Services at the Koby Mandell Foundation for bereaved families/victims of terror. She is a Group Facilitator for the Israel Center for the Treatment of Psychotrauma's Community and School Resilience Unit, working both in Israel and internationally. Ms. Goldman conducts counselor training sessions for, among others, the Jewish Agency, and Yeshiva University in Israel. She lives in Jerusalem, and is a joyful mother and grandmother.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2017

7:45 PM

YOUNG ISRAEL OF ST. LOUIS

8101 DELMAR BOULEVARD,
UNIVERSITY CITY

THIS LECTURE HAS BEEN SPONSORED BY THE SARAH ADELMAN MEMORIAL FUND.