SHUL NEWS

SECURITY REMINDER RE ENTRANCE IN THE BUILDING:

In this era of heightened security sensitivity, we organize a police officer to monitor the entrance of the shul each Shabbat morning. To be effective, it is very important that there be a single point of entry into the building through those doors. Please do not knock on other doors such as the Beit Midrash parking lot door, or the door at the top of the stairs to the social hall door in order to gain entrance. Please enter through the main doors before making your way to whichever location you are seeking. Thank you for your understanding.

A SHABBOS WITH THE KOLLEL:

This Shabbat (Chukat, July 9) the Young Israel of Saint Louis is proud to participate in a community wide initiative of the St. Louis Kollel called "A Shabbos with the Kollel. Between the end of davening and Kiddush (the time-slot usually reserved for guest-speakers / scholars in residence) we will have the opportunity to choose from 2 shiurim offered by members of the Kollel. You can pick whichever topic you wish. One shiur will take place in the sanctuary and the other in the social hall.

This will be in lieu of a drasha this week, so we hope the shiurim will start around 11:00 am. Kiddush will follow the presentations.

These shiurim are open to all, and are on the following topics:

Rabbi Eliyahu Goldstone - "Pardon Me: A Halachic Perspective on a Pardon for a Murderer"

Rabbi Avi Bin-Nyun - "Mei Meriva: The Value of a Moment"

Thank you to Rabbi Berkowitz, Rabbi D. Miller, and the entire Kollel for this initiative, and for sharing Torah study with the entire community.
