JSU NEWS

ANNUAL GALA ON NOVEMBER 12TH: Please join us in celebrating JSU's 21 years of inspiring the next generation of Jewish leaders, today's teens, to take pride in their Jewish identity and to engage Jewishly by making Judaism meaningful and relevant for all Jewish teenagers. In short, JSU facilitates the teens' self-discovery to answer the question of, “Why be Jewish?” in ways that are meaningful to them. JSU is on the front lines working with schools and the teens of our community, equipping them with the knowledge and confidence to stand strong and proud, not just during Israel's current war, but always. Today, we have 27 alumni serving in the IDF with many on the front lines.

This Year's Honorees:

Jackie & Howard Oppenheimer - Lifetime Achievement Award

Judith & Ted Isaacs - Jewish Engagement Award

Scott Biondo - Jewish Community Service Award
