About our Speaker

Dr. Jonathan Adelman, a full professor at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies at the University of Denver, has written and edited 12 books since receiving his Ph.D from Columbia University. He founded and ran both the China and Israel Institutes at DU for five years.

Professor Adelman has significant experience with the American government. As Condi Rice's doctoral dissertation adviser, he briefed the Secretary of State almost a dozen times on international issues. In the 1980s he spent eight years as a Senior Scientist working for Science Applications International Corporation on contracts on the Soviet military for the Defense Department. During his distinguished career, the State Department has sent Professor Adelman on 18 international speaking tours to countries ranging from Japan, China, Russia and India to Germany, Spain, England, Turkey and Argentina.

Professor Adelman is also an expert in Sino-Israel relations. In the late 1980's, Professor Adelman spent three years working with the Israeli Foreign Ministry to secure and organize three groups of Chinese princelings to visit Israel as part of a successful effort to gain Chinese diplomatic recognition. Since then, he has visited China 18 times and has been an Honorary Professor at both Peking University and People's University in Beijing. He continues to work with the Foreign Ministry on ideas to improve Sino-Israeli relations.

About AIPAC

The American Israel Public Affairs Committee is the only American organization whose principal mission is to lobby the U.S. government about legislation that strengthens the relationship between the United States and Israel. Every day, the professional staff and AIPAC activists are hard at work helping to educate Members of Congress, candidates for public office, policymakers, media professionals and student leaders on college campuses about the importance of the U.S.-Israel friendship. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the organization has 10 regional offices focused on bringing our message to legislators throughout the country.

Today, AIPAC is broadening and deepening the U.S.-Israel bond by working to secure vital aid for Israel to help ensure Israel remains strong and secure. AIPAC is working to promote strategic cooperation between the two nations, to develop sound U.S. anti-terrorist policies and to stop rogue nations such as Iran from acquiring a nuclear weapons capability. AIPAC is a registered domestic lobby and supported financially by private donations. The organization does not receive financial assistance from Israel, any national organization or any foreign group. AIPAC is not a political action committee. It does not rate, endorse or contribute to candidates. Because it is a lobby, contributions to AIPAC are not tax deductible.

For more than 50 years, AIPAC has worked to make a difference. Because of your commitment to AIPAC, together we can continue to make a difference.
