

Young Israel of St. Louis Presents

Rabbi Dr. Seth Farber is an Orthodox Rabbi and historian in Israel, best known for his work helping Jews navigate the Israeli bureaucracy. He was ordained by the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary of Yeshiva University in 1991, and received his masters in Judaic Studies from YU in 1995, and a PhD from Hebrew University in Jerusalem in 2000. He was a teacher at the Maimonides School in Brookline, MA before making Aliyah. He is the author of An Amercian Orthodox Dreamer: Rabbi Joseph B. Solovetichik and Boston's Maimonides School.

Rabbi Farber is widely known as the founder and director of ITIM (www.itim.org.il), an organization that aims to assist Israelis with legal intricacies of personal status (marriage, divorce, conversion, burial, etc.) which are administered by the Ministry of Religious Affairs. He serves as the pulpit rabbi of Congregation Kehillat Netivot in Raanana.
