YOETZET HALACHA ATARA EIS
FEB 15-16

Atara Eis Yoetzet Halacha Atara Eis is Director of Nishmat's Miriam Glaubach Center, which educates Yoatzot Halacha in the U.S., offers continuing professional development for Yoatzot and provides extensive support to communities employing them. She lives with her family in Efrat, Israel. Atara holds a B.A. in Judaic Studies from Yeshiva University's Stern College, an Associate Degree in Music, as well as an M.S. from Azrieli Graduate School for Jewish Education.

After completing the YU Graduate Program in Advanced Talmudic Studies for Women, Atara studied at Nishmat's Keren Ariel Halachic Institute in Jerusalem to become a Yoetzet Halacha. Previously, Atara taught at Midreshet Lindenbaum and Kohelet Yeshiva High School in Philadelphia where she served as the Israel Guidance Counselor. She served as a Yoetzet Halacha in Philadelphia, at a consortium of Manhattan synagogues, and previously in Silver Spring, MD. In 2009, Atara was selected by The Jewish Week as one of "36 under 36," and in 2010, she was a recipient of Kohelet Yeshiva High School's Distinguished Educators Award.
